

COMPUTERS FOR YOUTH

Parent/Guardian Permission & Commitment Statement for Junior Web Design Internship
(Summer 2003)

Deadline: May 30, 2003

Instructions. When entering the information below, please print. Once you have completed and signed this form, please give it back to the student. The student will attach it to his/her application and deliver both to the Computers for Youth (CFY) contact person at the school.

Overview of the Program. The CFY Junior Web Development Internship is a collaborative team and mentoring experience. In the program, students learn to conceptualize, build, debug and maintain interactive web pages. They also learn to participate effectively on a team and develop positive workplace skills and attitudes. Two students (total) will be accepted into the program. These students will intern 10 hours/week for 6 weeks between July 8 and August 15, 2003 at CFY's office in mid-town Manhattan. During the internship, they will be mentored by college students. Students will receive a certificate valued at approximately $300 and transportation funds for their participation.

I give permission for my child to participate in CFY's Web Design Internship and to work at CFY's mid-Manhattan office for 10 hours/week from July 8 – August 15, 2003.

If my child is selected for this program, I give my commitment that s/he will participate for the entire 6 weeks of the program. Although CFY will provide MetroCards, I understand that my child is responsible for getting himself/herself to and from CFY's office in mid-town Manhattan.

I understand that if my child misses more than three work days, s/he will be asked to leave the program. In addition, I understand that repeated lateness or consistently disruptive behavior may result in my child being asked to leave the program.
